94. Editor's Choice . Wine Enthusiast

A gorgeous Shea bottling, this is lushly aromatic and fruited with strawberry jam, blueberry and cherry. The fruit is set against clean acids and supple tannins, and flavors remain full and focused with details of baking spices all through the long finish. This is a thoroughly delicious example of the power and pleasure of the 2014 vintage in the Willamette Vallev. - Paul Greautt

92 Vinous: Expansive scents of ripe red and dark berries are complicated by suggestions of candied flowers and star anise. Juicy, plush and appealingly sweet on the palate, offering intense black raspberry, cola and floral pastille flavors and a touch of bitter chocolate. In a plush but energetic style, showing strong closing thrust and smooth, slow-building tannins that add shape and gentle grip. -- Josh Raynolds
