Raptor Ridge

2015 Pinot Noir Shea

92 Points Vinous, Josh Raynolds: Deep brilliant red. Ripe raspberry, cherry cola and spice cake aromas show very good clarity and pick up a smoky nuance with aeration. Smooth, seamless and appealingly sweet, showing impressive depth and heft to the spice-laced red fruit, vanilla and floral pastille flavors. In a juicy, fairly robust style, in keeping with the vintage, showing strong closing punch and harmonious tannins that come in late to add shape and grip to the long, sweet finish.

93 Points Jamessuckling.com: This pinot noir shows blueberries, raspberries, lemons and hints of yogurt. Full body, round and silky tannins and a vibrant and fresh finish. I like the austerity of the acidity. Drink now.
